FINAL REMINDERS FOR RIVER FESTIVAL 2015

(Salina 06-15) As Festival-goers pack their cars and little red wagons in preparation for hours of River Festival fun, a few reminders of what to bring and what to leave behind at home may be helpful.

*The Festival's five entrance gates don't open to the public until 10 a.m. this year. No general Festival attendees will be permitted before that time. No early set-up by vendors, volunteers or the public.

*Coolers with snacks and beverages are permitted. No glass containers of any kind.

* Shade umbrellas behind designated and marked sight lines only. No canopy tents of any kind anywhere in the park by the general public.

*Absolutely no pets on-grounds other than authorized, designated service animals.

*No bicycles.

*There are designated smoking areas around the park. See pgs 24-25 of the Festival Program or go to riverfestival.com/pdfs/festivalmap.pdf.

Other guest services returning to the River Festival include the Red Cross & EMS First Aid Center, a fully staffed mobile-device charging station, an ATM, Baby Station, Ident-A-Kid and Lost & Found. Shuttles from various points in the Salina Bicentennial Center parking lots to Festival grounds are wheelchair-accessible. See the Festival Program pages 24-25 or riverfestival.com/pdfs/festivalmap.pdf for guest-service locations and details.

Helpful final reminders about what to bring or not bring to the Festival also can be found at riverfestival.com/visitorinfo/admission.

For needed accommodations, please call Kathy Burlew at Salina Arts & Humanities at 785-309-5770 between 8:00 a.m. - Noon and 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. Every effort will be made to accommodate known disabilities. For material or speech access, please call at least five working days prior to the event.
