2021 FESTIVAL MEDALLION QUEST WINNER CONFIRMED ON SUNDAY AUGUST 22

(SALINA 08-21) Salina Arts & Humanities announces that the winner of the 2021 Festival Medallion Quest is Heike ('HIKE-ee') Daily.

With help from two of her sons, including local son Brad and son Aaron of Peachtree City, Georgia, along with granddaughter Tess, Daily found the 2021 Medallion at about 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, August 22.

The Medallion was a grey-colored box with a sliding lid, placed under the base of a lamp post located just south of the "Trifinity" sculpture in the green spaces of the Salina City-County building.

Daily has searched every year since the Quest began in 2009, originally with her sister. On Sunday, as she looked with help from her family, "All of a sudden, we saw the lampposts that looked like a moon, and noticed were in a straight line," says Daily. "Then across from them was the "new and old" courthouses, which led us to look again at the lampposts. Then, we realized that "the missing eight" was Eighth Street, which ends south of the courthouse."

Daily is the 15th winner of the Festival Medallion Quest that was started in 2009 by the Smoky Hill River Festival. The Festival Medallion Quest's goal is to foster creativity and connectivity in a way that reflects the spirit of the River Festival.

The 2021 Quest took nearly five days and returned to the "old" or previous format of two daily written-only clues, shared online at festivalmedallionquest.com and posted outside the Eighth Street SAH office doors.

In 2019, a graphic-clue style Quest lasted five days, with mother-daughter duo Gwenna Reich ("Rich") and daughter Tara
